

6TH GRADE BIBLE

In sixth-grade Bible class, our students embarked on a journey delving into the concept of humility, guided by the timeless teachings of Jesus. Through an exploration of biblical passages and thought-provoking parables, our 6th graders not only absorbed but embraced the invaluable lesson of leading a life adorned with a modest and selfless attitude.

The focal point of our study rested on the words of Philippians 2:3-4, which resonated with the essence of humility. This scripture implores us to prioritize others above ourselves, urging a steadfast commitment to the interests and well-being of our fellow beings.

As students reflected on this lesson, they shared their insights and connections. Madelyn Cho noted that Jesus taught many people about humility, including his own disciples.

“This has shown me that we need to be humble with God and others so that we can be exalted by God when we are in heaven.” - Madelyn Cho

Ashlyn Walker, with a discerning spirit, highlighted the parallels drawn from Luke 14:11.

“I learned that we need to be like little children. They are less prideful and humble. Luke 14:11 says, for all those who exalted themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.” -Ashlyn Walker

Richard Fox, in his observation, distilled the essence of the lesson into the simple truth that boasting is never virtuous, advocating for a continual commitment to stay humble.

“I learned it is never good to boast and that you should stay humble.”
-Richard Fox

Mary Kasabyan shared her personal journey towards peace by putting others above herself.

“Putting others above me is what brought me peace. I realized that in arguments I should humble myself and be more apologetic.”
-Mary Kasabyan

Ruby Crawford acknowledged the profound lesson of humility and service to others. She drew a parallel to the divine promise that those who exalt themselves will be humbled by God.

“ Bible class has taught me to be humble and serve others like Jesus did. God will humble those who exalt themselves over us.”

-Ruby Crawford

As our students continue to unravel the tapestry of Jesus' life, they not only gain a profound understanding of His teachings but also internalize essential values that will undoubtedly shape their spiritual journey. With each lesson, they walk hand in hand with the Lord, fostering a growth that extends beyond mere academic exploration, cultivating the very fabric of their character in the light of humility and selfless service.
